

The Sir John Brunner Foundation (the Foundation) collects and processes the personal data relating to Sir John Deane's Sixth Form College applicants as part of the application process. This notice outlines how the Foundation will handle your data.

- o Allowing the Foundation to effectively communicate the application process to applicants
- o Communicate updates on the application process
- o Inform applicants of the outcomes of their application

Ensure applicants are eligible to apply for a place at the College

Identify suitable courses for enrolment

To meet the legal requirement for reporting to the Department for Education

Disability, SEN and diversity information

Educational history

Predicted grades

Medical information

Your information may be accessed by College employees, Skills Charge responsibilities Act 2009, and Apprenticeships Act 2009, and the Agency's Learning Records Service (LRS) to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN). The information you provide may be shared with other partner organisations for purposes relating to education or training.

Your data may be transferred outside the European Economic Area (EEA) in order to meet our contractual obligations with you. Such transfers are carried out with appropriate safeguards in place to ensure the confidentiality and security of your personal information.

